Welcome to DCMA

Accessing a U.S. Government (USG) Information System (IS) that is provided for USG-authorized use only. By using this IS (which includes any device attached to this IS), you consent to the following conditions:

- The USG routinely intercepts and monitors communications on this IS for purposes including, but not limited to, penetration testing, COMSEC monitoring, network operations and defense, personnel misconduct (PM), law enforcement (LE), and counterintelligence (CI) investigations.
- At any time, the USG may inspect and seize data stored on this IS.
- Communications using, or data stored on, this IS are not private, are subject to routine monitoring, interception, and search, and may be disclosed or used for any USG authorized purpose.
- This IS includes security measures (e.g., authentication and access controls) to protect USG interests—not for your personal benefit or privacy.
- Notwithstanding the above, using this IS does not constitute consent to PM, LE or CI investigative searching or monitoring of the content of privileged communications, or work product, related to personal representation or services by attorneys, or clergy, and their assistants. Such communications and work product are private and confidential. See User Agreement for details.

A screenshot of a web browser window. The address bar shows 'https://pubmini.dcma.mil/my.policy#'. The browser tabs include 'Computers/DMI', 'CASD Unavailable', and 'pubmini.dcma.mil'. The main content area has a dark blue background with a yellow border. The text reads: 'Please choose how you wish to authenticate to DCMA:'. Below this are two options, each with a green arrow icon: 'Log in using my CAC or PIV Card' and 'Log in using my EWAM username & password.'. A white callout box with a black border points to the first option, containing the text 'Click "Log in using my CAC or PIV Card"'. Below the options is a note: 'NOTE: If you are NOT a DCMA employee, you will need to create an account via EWAM (External Web Access Management)'. At the bottom, it says 'For help, please contact the DCMA Service Center at 1.888.576.3262'.
